The Oklahoma Historical Society *Research Center presents a collection resources for researching Oklahoma Territory.

1890 Oklahoma Territorial Census & Index

Completed in June of 1890, this census includes seven counties: Logan, Oklahoma, Cleveland, Canadian, Kingfisher, Payne and Beaver. The territorial census recorded the individual’s name, age at nearest birthday, relationship to the head of the family, birthplace, sex, color, number of years in the United States, length of residence in the Territory, if they were a soldier, if they had been naturalized, and if they were able to read or write. The county and town were also listed.

This DVD includes more than 1,200 color pages, scanned from the original census documents. An index with more than 50,000 names is also included.

Smith’s First Directory of Oklahoma Territory For the Year Commencing August 1, 1890

Smith’s was a commercial directory published in Guthrie by James W. Smith after the 1890 Oklahoma Territorial Census was taken. Color reproductions of complete directory with index/name finding list included.

The First Eight Months of Oklahoma City by Bunky

This book begins with the run of 1889 and explores area businesses & business-owners, churches, newspapers, local politics and citizens. Color scans of the entire book are included.
