

Oklahoma History Symposium presented by the Oklahoma Historical Society
"Perspectives in History" | April 9, 2022 | Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
Proposal Submission Form

The 2022 Oklahoma History Symposium will be held April 9, 2022 at the Oklahoma History Center in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The symposium is organized by the Oklahoma Historical Society (OHS) and offers scholars, historians, authors, and museum professionals from across the state and country a forum to share their work with history enthusiasts.

Deadline for submissions

November 30, 2021

Name _____

Email _____ Phone _____

Title & Organization _____

Title of session _____

Session type

Sessions will either be 30 or 50 minutes in length. Visual aids are recommended but not required.

Traditional presentation

Research session

Discussion session

Panel discussion

Description of session (250 words maximum)

Biographical information (university/organizational affiliations, major works or publications, etc.)

Names, titles, and organizations of other participants (if applicable)

Equipment

Session rooms will include a Windows PC laptop and projector or TV screen. There is internet access available. We prefer that you use our equipment. However, if you bring your own, it must be in place before your session begins. If you wish to use a Mac computer, you will need to supply any necessary cables, adapters, or equipment. We will assume that you will require no assistance in the set up or operation of such equipment.

Does your presentation include a PowerPoint? If yes, we will need a copy by Monday, May 28.

Yes No

Does your presentation require sound?

Yes No

Does your presentation require any additional equipment? (We may not be able to grant all requests.)

Conference format

Contingent on the COVID-19 pandemic, the symposium is expected to be held in-person and streamed live,

Proposals may be emailed to

Larry O'Dell
Director of Development and Special
Projects lodell@okhistory.org

Questions?

lodell@okhistory.org
405-522-6676