Bruce T. Fisher Award Nomination Form

The Bruce T. Fisher Award recognizes the significant contribution of an individual or organization for projects including but not limited to digital offerings, short-form publications, collections care, film, public programs, and exhibits. The project must contribute to broader public knowledge or expand appreciation in any field of Oklahoma history. The work must have been completed in the previous year (2026) and have a budget of $20,000 or less. The awardee receives $500 and a plaque of recognition.

To nominate an individual or organization, please complete the form below. Incomplete nominations will not be considered, and the nomination deadline is November 15.
