

Oklahoma Historical Society

Joseph B. Thoburn Award Nomination Form

To encourage the study of Oklahoma history among young people, the Oklahoma Historical Society offers the Joseph B. Thoburn Award each year to a secondary student who exhibits outstanding achievements in the presentation or interpretation of state and local history. This may include, but is not limited to, involvement in local historical projects and achievements in essay contests, scholastic tests, and Oklahoma National History Day competitions. The awardee receives $500 and a plaque.

To nominate an individual, please complete the form below. Incomplete nominations will not be considered, and the nomination deadline is November 15.
