

Activity Sheet

(Updated Winter 2021)

Inasmuch Gallery (Purple)

Imagine you were a fur trader in what is now Oklahoma. Look at the items that were traded between the French and the Wichita tribe. Draw a picture of the item you are either trading to or trading for from the Wichita tribe, and fill in the sentence. Why would you trade for that particular item? What would you use it for?

I would trade _____ for _____

Because:

ONEOK, Inc. Gallery (Yellow)

Circles of life! Look through the exhibits about how people in different tribal nations lived at different times in their life. Write down a fact about how the featured tribal nation viewed childhood, youth, maturity, and old age. Then, write down a fact about how people in your family view each phase of life. Are the views very different or similar?

Gaylord Gallery (Space)

Have you ever taken a long car ride? What did you take with you?

Draw the things an astronaut would need to take with them to space.

Activity Sheet

(Updated Winter 2021)

Kerr-McGee Gallery (Green)

Sit at the Katz Drug Store counter and look at the protest posters hanging from the ceiling. Create your own protest poster or write song lyrics about something you feel strongly about.

Sam Noble Gallery (Red)

Design a set for Oklahoma! or another theater production on a piece of paper or digitally. After you have designed your set, upload your creation!