

Child Labor in Oklahoma: Photographs by Lewis Hine, 1916-1917

This is a small collection of images by Lewis Hine who captured the soul of the child laborer in north America in the early 1900s. He mainly focused on major cities, but took brief trips to other parts of the country to document child labor, including Oklahoma. Hine photographed in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Lawton, Shawnee, Okmulgee, Sulphur, and other communities.
