

A Fluid Frontier Quiz

- Which TWO of the following explorers led expeditions into parts of present-day Oklahoma?
  - Christopher Columbus
  - Juan de Oñate
  - Daniel Boone
  - Hernan Cortez
  - Francisco Vásquez de Coronado
  - Marco Polo
- Which answer describes a cattle drive?
  - Bovine transport vehicles
  - The act of traveling a great distance in an automobile past large ranches
  - Trails used by cowboys and ranchers to move large herds of cattle from one state to another
- Fill in the blanks using the correct words from the word bank.

|             |           |       |                |
|-------------|-----------|-------|----------------|
| Large       | Immigrant | Labor | Team-Building  |
| Competitive | Small     | Fun   | Cross-Cultural |

- Mines and railroads often created _____ communities where there was a lot of _____ interaction.
- Circle all that are considered one of the Five Tribes.
    - Shawnee
    - Muscogee (Creek)
    - Cherokee
    - Kiowa
    - Pawnee
    - Seminole
    - Choctaw
    - Chickasaw
  - True or False: African-Indian people were important during the Civil War because they acted as interpreters.
  - Which is the name of the first fighting unit made of whites, Blacks, and American Indians in the Civil War?
    - First Indian Home Guard
    - First Native Home Guard
    - First Native Fighting Guard
    - First Indian Fighting Guard
  - The first of the famous land runs took place in the year:
    - 1898
    - 1888
    - 1889
    - 1869
  - Which is NOT one of the three major Asian countries to open its ports allowing for emigration to the United States in the late eighteenth into the nineteenth centuries?
    - China
    - India
    - Korea
    - Japan
  - Fill in the blanks.

The _____ and the _____ are both examples of immigration policies made by the United States to keep Asian people from immigrating to the US.
  - The first Middle Easterners came to Oklahoma in the
    - Early nineteenth century
    - Late eighteenth century
    - Mid-eighteenth century
    - Late nineteenth century