

ERNEST L. HOLLOWAY (1930-2011 )

Dr. Holloway is a very important leader in education. He was president of Langston University for 25 years. He has helped people all over the world to get an education. The State Legislature thanked him for his many achievements. Dr. Holloway has received over 200 awards and is in the Higher Education Hall of Fame and many others. He grew up in a historically all-black town called Boley.