

S. DOUGLASS RUSSELL (1858)

Mr. Russell was born in Mississippi. He moved to Oklahoma and started a newspaper in Kingfisher. It was called the Constitution. Later he moved to Langston and started a paper called the Western Age. The motto of his newspaper was "Justice and Equality." Mr. Russell was very brave. He wrote stories encouraging African Americans to vote and demanding fairness in state government.