

PRENTICE GAUTT (1938-2005)

Mr. Gautt was a very good football player. He graduated from Douglass High School in Oklahoma City in 1956. Mr. Gautt was the first African American to play football at the University of Oklahoma. He was the most valuable player in 1959. Mr. Gautt played in the National Football League for seven years. The OU Prentice Gautt Academic Center is the finest student-athlete academic facility in the nation.