2006.016 Dunning, John

The John Dunning Political Collection is an extensive compilation of Oklahoma-related political memorabilia that spans the Territorial era through the twentieth century into the twenty-first. Amassed by Mr. Dunning, the collection contains campaign material (including posters, fliers, buttons, ribbons, cards, audio, video, letters, speeches, press releases, and newspaper clippings), correspondence, items from elected officials (invitations to inaugurations and functions, diplomas, certificates, internal memos, speeches, personal mementos, and other ephemera), newspapers, periodicals, books on Oklahoma politics and those written by Oklahoma politicians, as well as photographs that cover all of these aspects. The collection includes an African American organization campaigning for John C. Walton during the 1922 gubernatorial election, Socialist Party material, political material from American Indian Nations, from Indian Territory, from the proposed state of Sequoyah, from the capitol relocation controversy, and from nearly every political episode in Oklahoma's history. Individual's papers contained within the Dunning material include Otis Sullivant, a long-time political writer for the Daily Oklahoman; Melvin Cornish, Pittsburg County lawyer, political activist, and life-long friend of William Murray; W. C. Allison, a political leader in Eastern Oklahoma and Pittsburg County Registrar; Gladys Gockel, a political activist in the Republican Party and delegate to the 1968 Republican National Convention; Perle Dunham, a 1922 congressional candidate, Frank Davis, a 1926 gubernatorial candidate; Ethel Adams Anderson, a close friend of Jed Johnson; and Fred Mock, 1954 candidate for the US Senate.
