Special Events
- Woodward Main Street Walking Tour: Experience an especially entertaining stroll through Woodward’s historic downtown with tour guide Beverly White and enjoy a delicious luncheon on the grounds of the Stone House.
- Tour of Fort Supply Historic Site: After a short bus ride, arrive at Fort Supply, an Oklahoma Historical Society-operated historic site, with tour guide Robert Rea. You will visit the restored Fort Supply Guardhouse and other buildings from the site’s early history and observe how several State agencies use Fort Supply’s buildings.
- Opening Reception: We will be the guests of the Plains Indians and Pioneer Museum for wonderful food and for an evening of conversation with fellow preservationists. This special event is generously sponsored by MidFirst Bank. Arrive early and visit the museum’s many exhibits.
- Parks and Breakfast Tour: Enjoy a sunrise tour and earlybird’s breakfast with your fellow conference participants. You will travel by bus to Boiling Springs State Park and to Woodward’s historic Crystal Beach.
- Keynote Session: Join all conference participants in the Woodward Arts Theatre for the keynote session. Our speaker will be F. Lawerence Oaks, Texas State Historic Preservation Officer and former Alabama SHPO. Mr. Oaks is a nationally recognized preservation leader, and his presentation is entitled “Renewing Preservation Partnerships for the Next Millennium.”
- Preservation Oklahoma, Inc.’s Annual Meeting and Luncheon: Join Oklahoma’s statewide nonprofit organizations as the 1999 “Most Endangered Properties List” is announced.
- Reception and Awards Banquet: Celebrate the accomplishments of the recipients of the Shirk Memorial Award for Historic Preservation. The SHPO’s Citations of Merit will also be presented. A special presentation will be made by the National Park Service to recognize Oklahoma’s two new National Historic Landmarks. Reception is hosted by The Stock Exchange Bank.
- Tour of Historic Waynoka: Everyone will want to take this half-day trip to nearby Waynoka. You will visit WPA properties and the Santa Fe Depot & Reading Room (Harvey House) which is undergoing rehabilitation through an ISTEA grant from the Oklahoma Department of Transportation.
- Special Performance: On Stage Woodward will present “You’re A Good Man Charlie Brown!” at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 6 at the historic Woodward Arts Theatre. Tickets are $15.00. To reserve your tickets call 580.255.7120 and ask for Deanna or Jeanie.

"Protecting the Irreplaceable"

Follow us onto the plains of Northwestern Oklahoma for our Eleventh Annual Statewide Preservation Conference. Preservationists from across Oklahoma will meet in Downtown Woodward May 6-8 to exchange ideas and consider issues critical to the preservation of our heritage.

Featured topics this year will include Northwestern Oklahoma’s Heritage and its Preservation, How to Respond to a Preservation Crisis, Historic Houses and How to Preserve Them, and Success and Failure/Boom and Bust on Main Street.

You won’t want to miss any of the special conference tours, including an afternoon trip to Historic Fort Supply, a sunrise visit to Crystal Beach and Boiling Springs State Park, the Downtown Woodward walking tour, and a morning drive to Waynoka.
