Oklahoma's Eighth Annual Statewide Preservation Conference

Duncan, Oklahoma

May 16-18, 1996
Conference Dates: May 16-18, 1996
Conference Location: Simmons Center, 800 North 29th, Duncan, Oklahoma Sponsors: Oklahoma Historical Society Preservation Oklahoma, Inc.
          Oklahoma Main Street Program Main Street Duncan, Inc.

An Invitation...
Every community has a unique character and a special heritage worthy of preservation. We invite you to join us May 16-18 in Duncan to learn about efforts across Oklahoma and the nation to "preserve community."

Oklahoma’s Eighth Annual Statewide Preservation Conference is a celebration of our state’s rich heritage. Choose from three concurrent conference tracks including 1) A Decade of Success on Main Street, 2) Preservation Technology and Methodology, and 3) Preserve Community.

Many special events are planned including a keynote session with featured speaker Kennedy Smith, Director, National Main Street Center. Other activities of celebration include Oklahoma Main Street Program’s 10th anniversary in downtown Duncan, tours of Duncan’s historic properties, the annual preservation awards banquet and a preservation resource fair.

Attention Architects, Planners, Realtors . . .
Professional architects, planners and realtors who attend Oklahoma’s Eighth Annual Statewide Preservation Conference will earn continuing education credit.
Members of the American Institute of Architects will earn AIA/CES learning units.
Planners will receive American Institute of Certified Planners’ professional development hours. Realtors will receive Oklahoma Real Estate Commission continuing education units. For further details about these special opportunities, contact Melvena Heisch at 405.522.4484.

Special Events...
- Preservation Resources Fair: Preservation-related agencies and organizations will exhibit information about their programs and services. Representatives of these groups will be on hand to talk about preservation needs and concerns. A box luncheon May 17, will be made available at the fair.
- Bus Tour of Duncan’s Historic Houses: Enjoy a box lunch and tour some of Duncan’s historic houses sponsored by the Stephens County Historical Society.
- Marlow’s Community Heritage — a Bus Tour: An afternoon bus trip to Marlow, about ten minutes north of Duncan, will provide a special look at this community’s rich heritage.
- Opening Reception and Halliburton Tour: Conference attendees will be treated to a tour of Halliburton’s facilities and be their guests for a reception.
- Keynote Session and Main Street Celebration: Kennedy Smith, Director, National Main Street Center; Susie Clinard, Director, Oklahoma Main Street
  Program and Ron Frantz, Architect, OMSP, will deliver the keynote address.
The conference will then adjourn to downtown Duncan to celebrate the Oklahoma Main Street Program’s tenth anniversary.
- Reception and Awards Banquet: Celebrate the accomplishments of the recipients of the Shirk Memorial Award for Historic Preservation, the SHPO’s Citations of Merit and the National Register of Historic Places certificates.
- Preservation Oklahoma, Inc.’s Annual Meeting and Luncheon: Join Oklahoma’s statewide nonprofit organization as the 1996 “Most Endangered Properties List” is announced and hear Ralph McCalmont provide the conference finale.
