WALLS SCHOOL

LOCATION: West of Shady Point, Oklahoma 040, Leflore County 079; SE 1/4, Sec. 29, T 7 N, R 23 E

CLASSIFICATION: building; private; public acquisition—N/A; occupied; present use—hay barn

OWNER: Roy W. Reed Trust, Box 678, Poteau, OK 74953

DESCRIPTION: good condition; altered; original site

Designed as a one-room school building, it is constructed of rusticated and coursed native sandstone. The roof is gabled. Unfortunately, to the north end has been attached a hugh hay barn constructed of poles and tin sheets. The addition destroys the integrity of the building.

SIGNIFICANCE: ca. 1936; unknown architect

It is a good example of a rural one-room school building.
